Welcome to all our Guests and Visitors worshipping with us today! Whoever you are and from whatever walk of life you come -- we welcome you in Jesus' name. May you find in Him, the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Do come again! If you have no Church home, we invite you to join our fellowship. The Pastor will be pleased to discuss membership with you. Please take a moment to introduce yourself and to sign our guest register in the narthex (please include full mailing address or email address). May the Lord bless your worship with us today. We would be pleased to have you return again!

Remember in your prayers:

- all who are sick, hospitalized, or shut in, especially all members of our church family, including: Grace Bowley, Doreen Doering, Walter Eckert, Bernice Edel, Elizabeth Kleebaum, Wilma Kroll, Hanna Liske,

Jack Miller, Georgina Nabe, Annie Nernberg, Ruth Zimmer;

- Marie Mohr and all of her family, especially Amber, Seth, Halle, and Carys, upon the sudden death of Michael (son, husband, father) last Tuesday;
- The family of Irma Baumung, as they adjust to her absence in their lives;
- all affected by the coronavirus, including all who are unemployed or under-employed, that we not lose trust in our gracious heavenly Father and that He would bring an end to the pandemic according to His good and gracious will;
- all health care workers;
- all who are dealing with health issues;
- Zion, Yorkton, as they resume the call process;
- Trinity, Churchbridge as they resume the call process;
- Pastor Milton Lam (Timmons, ON) as he considers the call to the Inglis-Grandview parish;
- the members of Grace and St. Matthew's;
- the pastor of our parish;
- our neighbours and friends – that they might respond favourably to our invitation to come meet Jesus in our midst.

Holy Communion is celebrated today.

The Sacrament of the Altar is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ under the bread and wine, for us Christians to eat and to drink, instituted by Christ Himself. Jesus Christ is present in the sacrament by His Word and we receive His gifts through faith for the assurance of the forgiveness of our sins and for strength to live new life in Him.

Our practice of closed communion is the historic practice of the church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it acknowledges God's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity is central to the common reception of this sacrament.

For this reason, guests who desire to commune are asked to speak with the pastor before the service.

Advance registration for this service today is also registration for communion. In the interim the use of communion registration cards will be suspended and have been removed from the pews.

Those who are not yet confirmed are welcome to come to receive a blessing, but are asked to keep their hands folded.

"O LORD, I love the habitation of your house and the place where your glory dwells" (Psalm 26:8 ESV)

It pleased Almighty God to call out of this life on February 8, 2022, the soul of Michael Mohr to His eternal rest to await the resurrection on the Last Day. Funeral arrangements are pending. Please keep the family in your prayers. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints" Ps 116:15

Law and Gospel are the two reins of Jesus' teaching that express His care for who we are now and His conviction about the people we will become.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF CONCORD SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY FORMULA OF CONCORD, SOLID DECLARATION ARTICLE XI: ETERNAL ELECTION

The explanation of the eternal and saving choice of God's elect children entirely gives God all the glory. In Christ He save us out of pure mercy, without any merits or good works of ours. He does this according to the purpose of His will, as it is written, "He predestined us for adoption through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of His will, to the praise of His glorious grace, with which He has blessed us in the Beloved" (Ephesians 1:5-6). Therefore, it is false and wrong when it is taught that not only God's mercy and Christ's most holy merit, but also something in us is a cause of God's election, on account of which God has chosen us to eternal life. Before we had done anything good, also before we were born, yes even before the foundations of the world were laid, He elected us in Christ...

Furthermore, this teaching gives no one a cause either for despair or for a shameless, loose life. By this teaching, people are taught that they must seek eternal election in Christ and His Holy Gospel, as in the Book of Life. This excludes no penitent sinner, but beckons and calls all poor, heavy-laden, and troubled sinners to repentance and the knowledge of their sins. It calls them to faith in Christ and promises the Holy Spirit for purification and renewal. It gives the most enduring consolation to all troubled, afflicted people ... (paragraphs 87-90)

Life Quotes

"The Church can become a place of belonging for everyone. As much as a person feels invisible in their loneliness, the church has a place for them. Your Church can be a place where each person finds they are indispensable to the body of Christ."

Mona Fuerstenau

A "Life Quote" is from Lutherans For Life – www.lutheransforlife.org.

About the Cover: Jesus told His disciples that they should not be surprised by trials and opposition in this world because it has been this way with all the prophets. The heavenly reward from the Lord far outweighs anything that this world can throw at His people. Even more so, we leap for joy and rejoice because these trials mean we are counted among those who will be with our Lord. He has first prized us so greatly that He gave of Himself with loving, outstretched arms upon the cross.
