Holy Communion is celebrated today.

The Sacrament of the Altar is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ under the bread and wine, for us Christians to eat and to drink, instituted by Christ Himself. Jesus Christ is present in the sacrament by His Word and we receive His gifts through faith for the assurance of the forgiveness of our sins and for strength to live new life in Him.

Our practice of closed communion is the historic practice of the church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it acknowledges God's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity is central to the common reception of this sacrament.

For this reason, guests who desire to commune are asked to speak with the pastor before the service.

Please mark the registration sheet for communion and worship attendance in the narthex. In the interim the use of communion registration cards will be suspended and have been removed from the pews. Those who are not yet confirmed are welcome to come to receive a blessing, but are asked to keep their hands folded.

The LWMLC meets on Tuesday at 1:30 P.M. (MB) at St. Matthew's.

Bible Class resumes this Wednesday at 7:30 P.M. (MB) hosted at St. Matthew's with our study of worship from Lutheranism 101.

An fyi: Pastor Wood officiated at the Rite of Christian Burial for Andrew "Andy" Dressler at Zion, Yorkton on Saturday afternoon. The interment was at the Churchbridge cemetery.

A report will be given on the Convention sometime in the coming weeks.

An unusual art project inspires Dr. Michael Zeigler's thoughts about life as God intended it. Hear Rev. A READING FROM THE BOOK OF CONCORD

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
LARGE CATECHISM, APOSTLES' CREED
ARTICLE III, THE HOLY SPIRIT

Neither you nor I could ever know anything about Christ, or believe on Him, and have Him for our Lord, unless it were offered to us and granted to our hearts by the Holy Spirit through the preaching of the Gospel...

The Spirit has His own congregation in the world, which is the mother that conceives and bears every Christian through God's Word. Through the Word He reveals and preaches, He illumines and enkindles hearts, so that they understand, accept, cling to, and persevere in the Word."

Where the Spirit does not cause the Word to be preached and roused in the heart so that it is understood, it is lost. This was the case under the papacy, where faith was entirely put under the bench. No one recognized Christ as his Lord or the Holy Spirit as his Sanctifier. That is, no one believed that Christ is our Lord in the sense that He has gained this treasure for us, without our works and merit, and made us acceptable to the Father. What, then, was lacking? This: the Holy Spirit was not there to reveal it and cause it to be preached. But men and evil spirits were there. They taught us to obtain grace and be saved by our works. There is no Christian Church in that. For where Christ is not preached, there is no Holy Spirit who creates, calls, and gathers the Christian Church, without which no one can come to Christ the Lord. Life Quotes

"The God who chose to give us life at the moment of fertilization is the same God who chose to rescue us and redeem us and give us salvation. And He did it by sending His Son, Jesus, to experience every stage of human life so we could be forgiven and given life everlasting with Him!"

Rev. Craig Michaelson, Faith Community Lutheran Church, Las Vegas, Nevada

A "Life Quote" is from Lutherans For Life – www.lutheransforlife.org.

About the Cover: To the man in today's Gospel, there was more than enough reason to tell everyone how much the Lord had done for him. Jesus cast out a legion of demons. No one else could do that. Oh, what good news of joy we bear that we have received through the preaching of the Word and the Sacraments! Jesus forgives our sins. No one else could do that. We cannot help but tell everyone about the free and saving work of Jesus!
