Welcome

Welcome to all our Guests and Visitors worshipping with us today! Whoever you are and from whatever walk of life you come -- we welcome you in Jesus' name. May you find in Him, the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Do come again! If you have no Church home, we invite you to join our fellowship. The Pastor will be pleased to discuss membership with you. Please take a moment to introduce yourself and to sign our guest register in the narthex (please include full mailing address or email address). May the Lord bless your worship with us today. We would be pleased to have you return again! -----

Remember in your prayers:

- all who are sick, hospitalized, or shut in, especially all members of our church family, including: Irma Baumung; Grace Bowley, Doreen Doering, Walter Eckert, Bernice Edel, Geraldine Edel, Elizabeth Kleebaum,

Hanna Liske, Jack Miller, Georgina Nabe,
Annie Nernberg, Ruth Zimmer;

- all affected by the coronavirus, including all who are unemployed or under-employed, that we not lose trust in our gracious heavenly Father and that He would bring an end to the pandemic according to His good and gracious will;
- all health care workers;
- all who are dealing with mental health issues;
- to thank the Lord for the freedom that we enjoy and that He would guide us so that we would not misuse that freedom and exchange it for license;
- the members of Grace and St. Matthew's;
- the pastor of our parish;
- our neighbours and friends – that they might respond favourably to our invitation to come meet Jesus in our midst.

Holy Communion is celebrated today.

The Sacrament of the Altar is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ under the bread and wine, for us Christians to eat and to drink, instituted by Christ Himself. Jesus Christ is present in the sacrament by His Word and we receive His gifts through faith for the assurance of the forgiveness of our sins and for strength to live new life in Him.

Our practice of closed communion is the historic practice of the church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it acknowledges God's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity is central to the common reception of this sacrament.

For this reason, guests who desire to commune are asked to speak with the pastor before the service.

Advance registration for this service today is also registration for communion. In the interim the use of communion registration cards will be suspended and have been removed from the pews.

Those who are not yet confirmed are welcome to come to receive a blessing, but are asked to keep their hands folded.

A question of whether or not the ladies will continue the Prayer Pals/partners in 2022 has been raised. A straw poll will be held over the next few weeks to determine continued interest.

"O LORD, I love the habitation of your house and the place where your glory dwells" (Psalm 26:8 ESV)

Under the new health orders St. Matthew's is limited to 25 or 33% capacity whichever is greater (approximately 68 persons depending on seating). We will NOT be requiring a proof of vaccination to attend service.

The use of non-medical masks is required.

Pre-registration is requested
(by Saturday noon MB time please).

Divine Service at Grace:

The use of non-medical masks is required.

In Christian freedom please continue to respect others' desire for physical distancing when entering/exiting and being seated.

Be mindful that not all may be vaccinated or fully vaccinated.

Many of the hymns today are written by women of the Church (indicated with an +). We give thanks to the women of the church for their service in hymnody and today also for the women of the LWMLC for their service.

Today is Food Bank Sunday and LWMLC Mite Box Sunday at St. Matthew's.

LWMLC Sunday is observed today at both Grace and St. Matthew's. A "Grab and Go" sandwich and cookie/muffin lunch will be provided after each service for you to take home. A free will offering will be gratefully received for the LWMLC.

On this All Saints' Day we remember the members of our church family and extended church family who have been transferred to the Church Triumphant since November 2020, especially :

Ed Zimmer – December 1, 2020

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord!

(Revelation 14:13)

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF CONCORD

ALL SAINTS DAY, SERIES B

LARGE CATECHISM

PART II, THE APOSTLES CREED

I believe in, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints.

Outside the Christian Church, where the Gospel is not found, there is no forgiveness, and also no holiness. However, while sanctification has begun and is growing daily, we expect that our flesh will be destroyed and buried with all its uncleanness. Then we will come forth gloriously and arise in a new, eternal life of entire and perfect holiness. For now we are only half pure and holy. So the Holy Spirit always has some reason to continue His work in us through the Word. He must daily administer forgiveness until we reach the life to come. At that time there will be no more forgiveness, but only perfectly pure and holy people. We will be full of godliness and righteousness, removed and free from sin, death, and all evil, in a new, immortal, and glorified body.

You see, all this is the Holy Spirit's office and work. He begins and daily increases holiness upon earth through these two things: the Christian Church and the forgiveness of sin. But in our death He will accomplish it altogether in an instant and will forever preserve us therein.

The Holy Spirit carries on His work without ceasing to the Last Day when we die to the world and all evil, He will make us perfectly and forever holy. (paragraphs 34, 56-59, 61)

Life Quotes

“Abortion isn't somebody else's issue. It's your business, it's my business, and it's our business. It's our issue as Christians, it's our issue as citizens, and it's our issue as human beings. Abortion and the sanctity of every human life matter very much for elections—more so than anything else. And it matters for much more than elections. It's a whole life issue!” Pastor Michael Salemink, Executive Director of Mission and Ministry, Lutherans For Life

About the Cover: On All Saints' Day, the Church remembers those saints who have gone before. Today, as Jesus speaks words of blessing to us, we also see that we have been called holy. In the Beatitudes, Jesus gives the promise of blessing after blessing to those saints today who endure the hardships of this life. The rewards of a life in Christ are above and beyond what we can conceive of ourselves, for the Lord reverses the original curse of death and grants us the fruits of eternal life won by Jesus.
