Holy Communion is celebrated today.

The Sacrament of the Altar is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ under the bread and wine, for us Christians to eat and to drink, instituted by Christ Himself. Jesus Christ is present in the sacrament by His Word and we receive His gifts through faith for the assurance of the forgiveness of our sins and for strength to live new life in Him.

Our practice of closed communion is the historic practice of the church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it acknowledges God's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity is central to the common reception of this sacrament.

For this reason, guests who desire to commune are asked to speak with the pastor before the service.

Please mark the registration sheet for communion and worship attendance in the narthex. In the interim the use of communion registration cards will be suspended and have been removed from the pews.

Those who are not yet confirmed are welcome to come to receive a blessing, but are asked to keep their hands folded.

The LWMLC meets on Tuesday at 1:30 P.M. (MB) at St. Matthew's.

Bible Class continues this Wednesday at 7:30 P.M. (MB) hosted at St. Matthew's with our study of worship from Lutheranism 101.

Pastor Wood will be officiating at the prayer service for Verna Ziprick on Thursday in Russell and the Rite of Christian Burial at Holy Trinity, Inglis on Saturday.

Confirmation Instruction: Junior Confirmation will begin at St. Matthew's after harvest is completed. Please contact Pastor Wood to let him know of any interest.

If there is interest in Adult Inquirers' Class (Adult Confirmation) let Pastor Wood know.

Church directory photo sessions are coming up.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF CONCORD

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
APOLOGY OF THE AUGSBURG CONFESSION
ARTICLE V: LOVE AND FULFILLING THE LAW

All confidence is empty, except confidence in mercy. Mercy delivers us; our own merits, our own efforts, do not. So Daniel (9:18-19) also prays:

We do not present our pleas before You because of our righteousness, but because of Your great mercy.

O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive. O Lord, pay attention and act. Delay not, for Your own sake, O my God, because Your city and Your people are called by Your name.

So Daniel teaches us in praying to seize mercy, that is, to trust in God's mercy and not to trust in our own merits before God. We also wonder what our adversaries do in prayer, if the ungodly people ever ask anything of God. If they declare that they are worthy because they have love and good works and ask for grace as a debt, they pray precisely like the Pharisee who says, "I am not like other men" (Luke 18:11). He who prays for grace in this way does not rely upon God's mercy and treats Christ with disrespect. After all, He is our High Priest, who intercedes for us. So prayer relies upon God's mercy, when we believe that we are heard for Christ's sake. He is our High Priest, as He Himself says, "Whatever you ask in My name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask Me anything in My name, I will do it" (John 14:13-14). Without this High Priest we cannot approach the Father.

Life Quotes

"By God's grace, and with His help, may we bear good fruit and make God-pleasing choices that glorify God who chose to create us and save us!"

Rev. Craig Michaelson, Faith Community Lutheran Church, Las Vegas, Nevada

A "Life Quote" is from Lutherans For Life – www.lutheransforlife.org.

About the Cover: Young Timothy was blessed to have been raised in the faith. Paul is charging him to not let go of that sound teaching that he has been given about Christ, his Savior. So also we have been blessed by the gift of the Holy Scriptures, which the Lord has given to us freely as the inspired, infallible, and inerrant Word of God. "Grant that we may so hear them, read, mark, learn, and take them to heart" (LSB 265).
