Holy Communion is celebrated today.

The Sacrament of the Altar is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ under the bread and wine, for us Christians to eat and to drink, instituted by Christ Himself. Jesus Christ is present in the sacrament by His Word and we receive His gifts through faith for the assurance of the forgiveness of our sins and for strength to live new life in Him.

Our practice of closed communion is the historic practice of the church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and God's people. It does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it acknowledges God's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Rom. 16:17) and the Bible's witness that doctrinal unity is central to the common reception of this sacrament.

For this reason, guests who desire to commune are asked to speak with the pastor before the service.

Please mark the registration sheet for communion and worship attendance in the narthex. In the interim the use of communion registration cards will be suspended and have been removed from the pews.

Those who are not yet confirmed are welcome to come to receive a blessing, but are asked to keep their hands folded.

A brief organizational meeting for funeral lunches at St. Matthew's will take place immediately after service next Sunday (October 30). A few volunteers are requested to meet with Gladys Timoruski at the front of the sanctuary.

-----

Bible Class continues this Wednesday at 7:30 P.M. (MB) hosted at St. Matthew's with our study of worship from Lutheranism 101.

-----

Confirmation Instruction: Junior Confirmation will begin at St. Matthew's after harvest is completed. Please contact Pastor Wood to let him know of any interest.

If there is interest in Adult Inquirers' Class (Adult Confirmation) let Pastor Wood know.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF CONCORD TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST FORMULA OF CONCORD, SOLID DECLARATION ARTICLE XI, GOD’S ETERNAL ELECTION

Our election to eternal life is founded not on our godliness or virtue, but on Christ’s merit alone and His Father’s gracious will. He cannot deny Himself [2 Timothy 2:13], because He is unchangeable in will and essence. Therefore, when His children depart from obedience and stumble, He has called them to repentance again through the Word, and the Holy Spirit wants by the Word to be effective in them for conversion. When they turn to Him again in true repentance by a right faith, He will always show His old paternal heart to all who tremble at His Word and from their heart, as it is written:

You have played the whore with many lovers; [yet return again to Me,] declares the Lord. (Jeremiah 3:1)

The declaration in John 6:44 is true, “No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him.” However, the Father will not do this without means, but has ordained His Word and Sacraments for this purpose as means and instruments. It is not the will of the Father or of the Son that a person should wait for the drawing of the Father without the Word and Sacraments. The Father draws by the power of His Holy Spirit according to His usual way. Every poor sinner should attend to the Word, hear it, and not doubt the Father’s drawing. For the Holy Spirit will be with His Word. That is the Father’s drawing. (paragraphs 75-77)

Life Quotes

“We may think our prayers are small in relation to the magnitude of the problem of abortion. Not so! ... Educate yourself, your children, and the people you know about Lutherans For Life ... Support leaders who embrace these words, ‘All men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.’ ... We have the most hopeful message the world has ever heard. You know it. God does big things with small stuff. How can we be so sure? Shiphrah and Puah, Jochebed, Miriam, and Moses ... and especially Jesus.”

Rev. Dr. Reed Lessing, Concordia University, St. Paul, Minnesota

A “Life Quote” is from Lutherans For Life – www.lutheransforlife.org.

About the Cover: Paul recalled his ministry, not for his own sake, but for the sake of Timothy, who was charged with carrying on with the preaching of the Word. Paul wanted for Timothy what he himself had lived and would die for. Let us also continue steadfast in the faith, proclaiming Christ, not merely for ourselves, but for the sake of the next generations, that they, too, may call upon the Lord and be saved (Romans 10:12).
